Safety Measures for Fall 2020

In-studio class sizes limited to 8; Masks required at all times on MCDA property; Social distancing in studios;
Student drop-off at the outside door;
Temperatures taken and hands sanitized at the door;
Waiting area closed to parents & dressing rooms unavailable

Students may only check-in to the building five minutes prior to the class start time.

Class start times will be staggered & shortened by five minutes to allow for sanitizing between classes.

Parents of older students: Parents drive up or accompany dancer to our outside door so that dancer's temperature may be taken & parents given the okay before leaving.

Parents of younger students: Parents accompany child to outside door for temperature-taking & drop off with teacher. Please pick up your child at the outside door following class.

Students should arrive fully dressed in dance attire.

Please limit personal belongings to a small backpack to be left in designated areas in our waiting area.

No used shoes will be lent or water available from the office.
Personal water bottles may be brought into studio & placed in designated areas.

Students will be dismissed one by one. Please be ready to pick up your child promptly when class ends.

In case of a government-ordered shutdown due to COVID-19, classes will be offered in an alternate format. Pricing remains the same. If an MCDA student or staff member tests positive, MCDA will work in cooperation with the McLean County Health Department to determine appropriate measures.
